Functions problem set 1

1. Describe what a parameter is and what it is used for.

2. Describe what the `return` keyword does and when it is needed.

3. Write a function that takes two parameters, adds them, then returns the result (of the addition).